

Term of Use

This website is operated and owned by SynHedge GmbH (hereinafter referred to as “SynHedge”, “we”, “us”). By accessing this website, you agree to these Terms of Use.

The content of this website is provided for general information purposes only and shall not be construed as professional and/or legal advice on any specific facts or circumstances. In particular, this website is not intended to offer consultancy or any other advice on any particular subject matter. Although we make reasonable efforts to keep all information accurate and up-to-date, we do not assume any responsibility or liability for its accuracy, completeness, timeliness, or for the results obtained from the use of the content of this website.

Unless indicated otherwise, the content available on this website is protected by copyright and/or other intellectual property rights, and we or our licensors, as the case may be, retain all rights in it. The use of any content without our prior express approval is prohibited.

References or links to other websites are merely suggestions for additional sources of information. We do not have any control over, nor assume any responsibility or liability for, the content of any such external sources. Transmission of information from our website is not intended to create and does not constitute a consultant-client relationship between SynHedge and the user.

Please note that e-mail or e-messaging communication is neither secure nor confidential. SynHedge does not assume any liability for the security or confidentiality of information sent via e-mail. Although we check our e-mails on a regular basis, SynHedge cannot guarantee a timely response to instructions received via e-mail.

SynHedge reserves the right to modify these Terms of Use at any time. The version published on this website is the latest version.

These Terms of Use shall be governed by Swiss substantive law. The courts in Schwyz, Switzerland, shall have exclusive jurisdiction for any dispute arising out of, or in the context of, your use of this website.
